No Shoes, A Rotary Shirt, No Problems.

January is Rotary Awareness Month. Get out the word about Space Center Rotary Club's extensive record of service to the community. Tell media representatives, friends, neighbors, etc., anyone that will listen. Be proud of your service and the good that Rotary does. Talk about international projects such as Polio Plus and various water projects. Inform the community of the support our club gives to various charities so that they may continue serving others. Rotary does great work and SCRC has a long history of helping in the Clear Lake Bay Area. Did you know that we once bought an ambulance for CLEMC and a van for the Seaman's Center at the Port of Houston and one for Communities in Schools?

Mark your calendar. Suzi's official governor's visit to SCRC will be on February 12th. Honor her with perfect attendance and a standing "O" for her service and dedication to the ideals of Rotary and the motto of Service Above Self. Being District Governor is a tremendous sacrifice of time and talent.

This is your space. Use it or lose it. Thanks to those few who have made contributions. If the editor does not receive your input, he will take that as an indication that this space is being wasted and the page will be discontinued as was the Sunshine and Showers section.

Ideas for Recruiting and Retaining Younger Members:

- Induct several young members at once, instead of recruiting them one at a time. If your club has no younger members, inducting several at the same time gives these new members an immediate peer group in the club.
- Conduct service projects that are likely to appeal to younger members. The Australian Bureau of Statistics found that volunteers in two age groups, 25-35 and 55-65, do the same amount of service work. But the younger volunteers were more likely to focus on areas such as education, sports, and family matters.
- Recruit Rotaractors, GSE team members, and other Rotary program alumni. Their participation in RI and Foundation programs shows that they already know about Rotary's ideals and are interested in pursuing its mission.
- Consider lowering the total cost of membership in your club. Some younger members have trouble meeting the financial obligations of club membership. To combat this problem, some clubs have lowered their fees or have a meal only once or twice a month instead of every week.
- Consider waiving certain fees or expenses for the first year or two. Younger members who aren't yet fully invested in Rotary may be more apprehensive about committing to all of the financial obligations of club membership. Once they become involved in your club and dedicated to Rotary's mission, they may be more willing and able to pay the full amount.
- Make sure meetings are efficient and productive. Younger members, who often have competing priorities, are more interested in attending meetings that are conducted efficiently. Also, make sure your club has an appropriate balance of meetings and hands-on projects and activities.
- Recruit "up-and-comers." Managers who are on their way to becoming important business and professional leaders are often interested in the networking and professional development benefits of Rotary. Getting them invested in Rotary while young can help ensure their dedication to Rotary when they reach top-level management, executive status, or ownership positions.
- Be open to the new ideas of younger members. Maintaining the status quo in your club may bore and discourage them. Younger members will be more likely to stay in your club if their opinions are valued and appreciated — and if they aren't treated like junior members.
