Dear Mr. Mitchell:

On behalf of President Reagan, I want to thank you for your message.

The first years of the Reagan Administration have seen great progress in many areas -- but our job is not complete. As the President emphasized in his State of the Union Address on January 25, 1984, "We have journeyed far. But we have much farther to go." He considers correspondence one of the best means of learning what Americans are thinking about the great issues facing our Nation. Your comments have been fully noted and will be shared with the President's advisers.

With the President's best wishes,

Sincerely,

Anne Higgins
Special Assistant to the President and Director of Correspondence
