

Hi all!

I am emailing everyone to ask for help. Our one and only Joni DeGuzman and family were devastated from the storm a week and a half ago. When I say devastated I mean her entire home was flooded out and so many of their belongings were lost. The damage is so extensive they are unable to stay home and are living temporarily in a hotel (which we all know is expensive!) Her girls lost books, shoes and sentimental items as did Joni and her husband. Unfortunately, they did not carry flood insurance as most of don't since we are not in a flood plane and very little will be covered by insurance. They currently have a GoFundMe account which i have listed below. Any help would be huge! Joni, Rey and their girls are under a tremendous amount of stress from all of this. If you can help in any way you will be a hero in my eyes. I have listed a few things I think will help other than contributing to their fund.

Shoes for the girls- Size 2 in girls and Size 7.5 in toddler size.

Kids books. Ryan (8yrs) loves to read and Ryleigh (3yrs) lost most of her books and her children's bible she read every night.

Gift cards to restaurants- since they are living out of a hotel they are unable to cook.

Gift cards to Lowes or Home Depot for obvious reasons.

Gift cards to Target, Walmart or any place they might get general items they need.

Hugs also go a long ways!!

Thank you for anything you can offer or anyway you can help. If you would like to help in any other way let me know how i can help or answer any questions. I can come pick up any items if need be or I am at the school every afternoon by the playground if you would like to bring it to me and I can get it to Joni.

Again, thank you thank you thank you!!
