Greg noted that there will be from 20 to 25 quality baskets for the silent auction

Alan needs 2 more hawkers for the live auction

Mike asked Courtney to send an email to the tribe leaders in charge of meal tickets encouraging them to bring money, not to return the tickets, to the Shrimporee Saturday. Mike will do the same for the tribe chiefs. Mike asked Jerrold to send an email to all the Club members reminding them to bring their meal ticket money to the Shrimporee. Mike will write the email and send to Jerrold.

The members noted that the following activities were on track:

- Bill Lowes and brisket slicing
- Bill Taylor and equipment and logistics
- Greg Smith and silent auction
- Alan Wylie and live auction
- John Nugent and food services
- Marilyn Musial and serving lines
- Art Oswald and Nancy Mallini and volunteers. Art is trying to solidify the schedule for the Boy Scouts and Commanders
- Bob Taggart and shrimp boil, how shrimp will be frozen will not be known until bought on spot market

Courtney reported meal ticket sales were less than last year

Marilyn reported that the raffle sales were less than last year
