Located in Southwest Africa, Upper Volta became an independent republic in 1960, and it adopted a new constitution in 1970.

Look, Ma—No Drill!

The drilling that precedes the filling of a cavity is what most people associate with the pain and discomfort of a trip to the dentist. A chemical development that actually dissolves the decayed tooth material in just minutes, with no drilling necessary at all, may be the answer to the dental patient's dreams. Because the chemical treatment removes just the decayed part of the tooth, less of the tooth is affected than with drilling, which removes some of the healthy tooth material as well. Also, the chemical is specific in seeking out just the decayed material and does not affect any other tissues in the mouth. The chemical is already in use in Japan.

ROTARY IS YOU! If you are doing your full duty as a Rotarian you won't have to worry whether your Rotary club is doing what it should. (Via The Scandal Sheet)

It's a Funny World

The Price of Freedom

One millionaire asked another millionaire, "How do you think your wife will take it when you offer her five hundred thousand dollars for your freedom?"
"Probably in fifties," replied the other.

Biggest Hit of All

A sportswriter once asked Joe Louis, "Who hit you the hardest during your ring career?"
His reply: "Uncle Sam."

Easier Said Than Done

"How's that new baby of yours?" a man asked the proud young father. "Has he learned to talk yet?"
"Oh, yes," said the father. "Now we're trying to teach him to keep quiet."

The Good Old Days

Officer: "Are you happy now that you're in the army, private?"
Soldier: "Yes, sir!"
Officer: "What were you before you joined the army?"
Soldier: "Much happier, sir!"

Reformed

A movie executive, once famous for his long after-dinner speeches, now expresses himself with brevity. Asked to explain his reformation, he replied, "It was a remark I overheard. During a pause in one of my speeches, one man asked another, 'What follows this speaker?' And the other said, 'Wednesday.'"

Poor Choice of Words

The lawyer visited a client who had been in an accident. "I've come to help you get damages," the lawyer said. "I've got all of those I want," the client replied. "What I need is repairs!"

Back to the Drawing Board

An aspiring author sent a manuscript to an editor with a letter, in which he stated, "The characters in this story are purely fictional and bear no resemblance to any person living or dead."
A few weeks later his book was returned with the penciled notation: "That's precisely the trouble."
