A middle-aged couple were sunning themselves on a vacation beach. "Do you know, Arthur," said the wife dreamily, "This is the first time we've ever been anywhere without the children?"

"Yes, Penelope, and believe it or not, I kind of miss them. Throw some sand in my face."

Two friends met at the club to play golf. The first stepped up to the first tee, took a mighty swing, and his first drive resulted in a hole in one.

The second man stepped up to the tee and said, "All right. Not bad. Now I'll take my practice swing and then we'll start our game."

"I hear you have a son in college. Is he going to become a doctor, a lawyer, an engineer, or a computer technician?"

The slow, quizzical answer came back: "I can't be sure. Right now the big question is: Is he going to become a sophomore?"

VISITING ROTARIANS FROM FAR AWAY:....On January 7th, JACQUES CHAMINADE from the Nyon, Switzerland Rotary Club....and BOB HERSBERGER, from the Peru, Indiana Rotary Club. Was good having both these fine gentlemen with us and hope they return real soon.
