The ABCs of Rotary

Four Avenues of Service

The term "Four Avenues of Service" refers to the four elements of the Object of Rotary: Club Service, Vocational Service, Community Service, and International Service.

Although the Avenues of Service are not found in any formal part of the constitutional documents of Rotary, many Rotarians use this concept to describe the primary area of Rotary activity.

•Club Service involves all of the necessary activities Rotarians perform to make their club function successful.

•Vocational Service describes the opportunity each Rotarian has to represent the dignity and utility of one's vocation to the other members of the club, as well as the responsibility of the club to undertake projects related to such areas as career planning, vocational training, and the promotion of high ethical standards in the workplace.

•Community Service pertains to those activities that Rotarians undertake to improve the quality of life in their community. It frequently involves assistance to youth, the aged, the disabled, and others who look to Rotary as a source of hope for a better life.

•The fourth Avenue of Service, International Service, describes the many programs and activities that Rotarians undertake to advance international understanding, goodwill, and peace. International service projects are designed to meet humanitarian needs of people in many lands.

When a Rotarian understands and travels down the four Avenues of Service, the Object of Rotary takes on even greater meaning.

Today's Song

Hello Dolly

Hello Dolly, well hello Dolly,
It's so nice to have you back where you belong.
You're looking swell Dolly, I can tell Dolly, you're still growing
You're still crowing, you're still going strong.
We feel the room swaying and band's playing, one of your old favorite songs from way back when, so,
Golly gee, fellows!
Offer her another knee fellows,
Dolly don't ever go away,
Dolly don't ever go away,
Dolly don't ever go away again.

District Conference

A Fellowship of Service

The District Conference is for the entire district membership and is usually held in the spring of the year, prior to the Rotary International Convention which is usually in June.

The purpose of the District Conference is to provide an opportunity for fellowship with other Rotarians - interspersed with lots of fun, inspirational speakers along with discussions of important Rotary matters on both the International and District levels.

The District Conference is such a major event that the Rotary International President attends or sends his personal representative to be in attendance.
